G UTTA PERCHA CORD, FOR WOOD & BABOOCK'S

S. C. BISHOP, 181 Broadway.

IMPORTANT TO QUARRYMEN. STONE CUTTERS, architects and builders. Politiku's Patent Spring Hammer Stone-dressing Machine is the first completely successful attempt to secure by means of machinery, the cutting of every kind of building stone with rapidly and precision, giving the most perfect finish to plain surfaces, fronts of steps, straight and curvelinear mouldings, fluted columns, &c. The principle of this simple, compact and durable machine, is precisely that of the mailet and chises used by hand in the most skillful manner, securing a perfection of line truly admiral, and with a rapidsty that leaves the old tedious processes of hand laber entirely in the shade. One of the machines can be daily seen in operation at 36 Gansevoort street, mar the North river, by Twelfth street.

Machines cutting surfaces from two to six feet wide, employing three men, and driven by a two-horse power engine, at a total cost of not over $8 per day, will readily and perfectly perform the labor of from 15 to 100 mm, thus insuring a reduction of about one third in the cost of all kinds or building stone.

Hights for the use of this machine in this, the United States, and foreign countries, are now for sale by the proprietors, Measrs. CAPWELL & PURITER, No. 37 Wail street, Jauncey court.
